

Architectural Review Board Candidacy Form

Lorant & Elliott recently turned over the Architectural Review Board (“ARB”) to the Association. The new process will consist of Flynn + Watson Architects and another member reviewing and approving the plans, and Essex will perform / sign off on inspections for on-site construction activities. This candidacy form is to fill the third seat on the ARB. Your duties include but are not limited to reviewing / approving building plans, meeting with Architects on a regular basis, and being informed on the plans submitted to be built in Quail Hollow. Please be aware that none of the Architectural Guidelines are changing. You will simply be assisting the Architects to review / approve the plans being submitted.
